PTPTN's Gong Xi Angpow campaign offers RM100,000 worth of prizes

THE National Higher Education Fund Corp (PTPTN) is offering prizes worth almost RM100,000 to all National Education Savings Scheme (SSPN) Simpan SSPN depositors through its 2022 Gong Xi Ang Pow campaign in conjunction with the Chinese New Year celebration.

The campaign, themed “Gong Xi Simpan, Kongsu Ong! Hari-Hari Mesti Mau Simpan Tau!”, which is synonymous with Gong Xi Fa Cai’s meaning “May Happiness and Wealth Be with You”, will be run at the state level.

It is open to all Simpan SSPN depositors, including Simpan SSPN Prime and Simpan SSPN Plus.

To participate in this campaign, depositors only need to make net savings as low as RM50 during the campaign period and will automatically be eligible for one draw.

The campaign promotion period lasts for one month starting Jan 15, 2022, until Feb 15, 2022.

Eight depositors will be chosen from each state as a winner to stand a chance of winning attractive prizes such as a 4K Smart TV 50, a high pressure cooker, a folding bike, RM388 worth of Ang Pow and more.

Simpan SSPN depositors participating in this campaign are also entitled to enjoy a variety of Simpan SSPN incentives, namely competitive dividends, Takaful coverage and income tax assessment relief up to RM8,000 per year.

The campaign is organised as an appreciation from PTPTN to loyal depositors who have chosen Simpan SSPN as the primary option for their savings in the festive season.
