Our responsibility as PTPTN borrowers

Our Responsibility As PTPTN Borrowers

COMING from a lower-middle-income family, I was fortunate to receive a loan from the National Higher Education Fund Corporation (PTPTN) that allowed me to pursue my dream of higher education. Without it, my aspirations would have remained out of reach.

After graduating, I was blessed to secure a job within a year.

Naturally, my PTPTN loan repayments were triggered.

Despite my starting salary being modest, I managed to make the monthly repayments.

To me, repaying the loan was not just a contractual obligation, it was also a social and moral responsibility, and for someone who is religious, a religious duty as well.
